Tianna Ladies Golf Association Hosts CHI St. Joseph's Health Hospice Care Golf Benefit

PARK RAPIDS, MN (July 25, 2017) – The Tianna Ladies Golf Association held their Annual golf Benefit on June 19th on behalf of CHI St. Joseph's Health Hospice Care at the Tianna Country Club in Walker.

The association coordinates this event to raise funds for Hospice in honor or in memory of loved ones. The association raised $7,400 to benefit CHI St. Joseph's Health Hospice Care.

These donations make a difference to patients, families and loved ones facing end-of-life issues. Community support ensures specialized quality hospice care close to home with an emphasis on comfort, dignity and helping hospice patients live every day to its fullest.

The association would like to thank everyone who participated in or sponsored this event. The Tianna Ladies Golf Association is proud to support CHI St. Joseph Health Hospice Care and all they do for our community.
